THE SIEGE OF PARIS.

The Prussians Driven from their Advance Positions—Proclamation by Gambetta Announcing the Fact.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—Minister GAMBETTA has issued the following proclamation: "Inhabitants of Tours—I announce to you with inexpressible satisfaction, that on the 12th inst. the more than ever heroic people of Paris, growing impatient behind their ramparts, have determined to march forward against the enemy. Here is the bulletin of their first victory: On the entire zone around the city, the Prussians have been driven out of all the positions which they had been occupying since three weeks. Toward St. Denis they have been driven away beyond Stains, Pierrefeitte and Dugny. On the east side, Joinville, Creteil, Bambigny and the plateau of Avron, have been recaptured. They have been forced from Le Bas-Meudon and St. Cloud, and thrown back on Versailles. The enemy know now what a people will do who are determined to save their institutions and their honor. I invite the provinces to do their duty as Paris has done here. Vive Paris! Vive la France! Vive la Republique!"

Further Details of the Operations about Paris—A Radical Movement in the City Suppressed.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The terrible artillery fire of Fort du Mont Valérien has literally swept the country round about. For a circuit of six kilometres the Prussian works have been destroyed. All the batteries that the Prussians have sought to erect against Mont Valérien have been annihilated. The Chateau of Meudon has also been destroyed. The Prussian engineers have been driven from Clamart, Meudon and Montretout. Villejuif and and Cachan have both been recovered by the French. On the north the Prussians have been driven back as far as Deuil and Bonneuil. The entire peninsula around Genvilliers has been freed from the Prussians by several strong cavalry reconnoissances, and is now in French hands again. On the east of Paris a lively cannonade has been maintained toward Bondy. The Prussians have also been driven from Chamvigny, more than three miles east of Vincennes. The Prussian circle around Paris is therefore expanding daily instead of contracting, and the Parisians are greatly encouraged.

A RADICAL MOVEMENT.

Demonstrations have lately occurred in Paris favorable to a radical change in the Government. Their origin was ascribed to GUSTAVE FLOURENS and LOUIS BLANC. The movement was utterly insignificant.

ANOTHER DISPATCH.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—One of the rumors on the Paris fortifications has particularly distinguished himself by the accuracy with which he points his guns. He has thus far frustrated all the efforts of the Prussians to construct offensive works within range of his guns. He is an Alsatian, named CHRISTIAN. The authority reporting this mentions that the Prussians have not yet been able to plant a single battery near enough to disturb any part of Paris. A steady fire has recently been maintained from Forts Mont du Valérien and D'Issy. The Prussians have been compelled to retreat from the fire of these forts behind the plateaux of Meudon and St. Cloud. The morale of the French soldiers is excellent. They are drilling constantly.

THE GARIBALDIS.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—MENOTTI GARIBALDI has arrived at Marseilles, on the way to Paris. RICCIOTTI is also expected at that city.

GERMAN REJOICINGS TO COME.

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—Arrangements have been completed in most of the German towns for bonfires, illuminations, fire-works and bell-ringing, to celebrate the entrance of the German Army into Paris.

Prussian Confirmation of the Ensconsative Wire—A French Sortie Repulsed.

VERSAILLES, Oct. 12, via BERLIN, Oct. 14.—The French have shelled and wantonly fired the Palace of St. Cloud. Ten French battalions made a sortie from Paris today. They were easily repulsed by the Second Bavarian Corps, which lost only nineteen men.

NEWS FROM WITHIN THE CITY.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—It is reported that M. KERATRY left Paris in a balloon and landed in safety. On the day of his departure a decree appeared suppressing the Prefecture of Police. The Danish Minister has arrived here from Paris. As soon as the bombardment of the capital commences all the representatives of the foreign Powers will come to Tours.

STORES OF THE GARRISON.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The land around Fort Mont du Valerien was regarded as the "garden spot" of Paris. Before the investment of Paris, the commander of the fort employed his men digging the potatoes and collecting the other crops, all of which were stored in the fortress.

PRUSSIAN DESERTER.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Noon.—A dispatch from Versailles, dated yesterday, via Berlin, today, has just been received, and contains the following news:

The Court-martial in the Prussian lines makes short work of deserters. Prince FREDERICK CHARLES occupies the house of Prince MORTEMART. The Royal head-quarters are at the west of the beleaguered city, and those of the Crown Prince to the east."

METZ.

Bazaine's Latest Sortie—A Sortie Under Canrobert—The Prussian Positions.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from the Sub-Prefect of Pont L'Evegne, dated on Wednesday, (12th,) fully confirms the reports of successful sorties by Marshal BAZAINE. He had burnt five villages, which had given shelter to the Prussians, dislodged the enemy from several positions and cut to pieces four regiments of cavalry and several battalions. At the same time Gen. CANROBERT made a successful sortie on the left bank of the Moselle.

PRUSSIAN POSITIONS.

TOURS, Oct. 13.—Advices from Metz show that the Prussians occupy a cordon of villages around the city, but hold no position within a distance of twenty kilometres of the fortifications. Marshal BAZINE made a sortie on Saturday last in which he captured 800 oxen, and 500 sheep from the enemy.

MUTINY.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Prussians report that a mutiny is imminent among the French soldiers at Metz.

DISEASE.

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—Later news has been received from Metz. Dysentery, scurvy, bronchitis and other diseases are prevalent in the city. All able-bodied citizens have been compelled to serve in the defense of the city.

LE BOSUF.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—There has been much anxiety recently about the French General, LE BOSUF. The correspondent of the Standard today says he is in Metz, and has a command under Marshal BAZAINE.

PREPARING FOR WINTER.

Wooden huts for the troops are arriving at the Prussian position below Metz.

BATTLE OF ORLEANS.

Official Report of the French General—The French Driven Out, Crossed the Loire by Boat—Transit of the Loire in Good Order.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—The General commanding the Fifteenth Corps makes the following report:

LA FERTE St. AUBIN, Oct. 13.—Yesterday the enemy continued to advance toward Orleans. Our troops, who were on the road to Paris, and had taken part the day before in the battle at Artheney, gave way. A brigade of the Third Division, who tried to oppose the enemy's advance, being constantly opposed by forces more numerous, and a superior artillery, had to fall back on Orleans, disputing the ground foot by foot. I was obliged, in order to check the enemy's progress, to go forward personally with three battalions of the reserve belonging to the Second Division. The enemy was checked for three hours, but at last we were broken and overcome by their shells. After very sharp fighting, which does honor to our army, I determined to evacuate Orleans and to withdraw to the left bank of the Loire. Our retreat, which was not molested, was effected with coolness and in good order.

L'ORLEANAIS.

Operations Between Tours and Paris—Reported Au Tours—Enthusiasm of the Volunteers—Activity of the Government.

TOURS, Oct. 14—Evening.—The news of the successful sortie of the Parisians causes intense excitement. All the troops here left this afternoon, to join the forces opposing the enemy near Orleans and Chateaudun. Among these reinforcements are the Franc-Tireurs from Bordeaux, and the south of France, who marched through the streets to the depot singing patriotic songs. They were wildly cheered by the people, and the enthusiasm was unbounded. As they reached the station they were met by Gen. BOURBAKI, who had just arrived, accompanied by M. CREMIEUX; and the soldiers and citizens joined in an impromptu ovation to the General and the Minister. The scene was most impressive.

ABOUT ORLEANS.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—The following official dispatches have been received at the Ministry of the Interior:

MEN. OR THE RAILWAY BETWEEN TOURS AND ORLEANS, Oct. 14.

No Prussians are at Beaugency, but they have occupied Marny in force.

ANOTHER STORY.

It is reported, unofficially, this morning, that the Prussians seem to be falling back from this side of Orleans. They are no longer in Beaugency and Meung. These towns are nearly fifteen miles south of Orleans, and are the most extreme points in this direction yet reached by the enemy.

ACTIVITY OF THE GOVERNMENT.

Minister GAMBETTA works constantly, not with the civil administration, but with the military chiefs, his first object being the organization of the armed forces of the country. When that has been accomplished he will turn his attention to political matters. The Government has issued a proclamation to the people of the provinces, showing how the enemy treat the population of the territory they occupy. It charges that they first buy, then take, and finally pillage. The proclamation is to be placarded in all the communes.

THE COUNT DE CHAMBORD.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Prussians are levying heavy contributions on the people around Beauvais, in the Department of Oise. The Count DE CHAMBORD has issued a patriotic address to the Pontifical Zouaves, who participated in the battle at Orleans a few days ago. Though they fought magnificently, he said, the Nationals and Mobiles merited equal praise.

CHATEAUDRAUX.

TOURS, Oct. 12, via LONDON, Oct. 13.—A dispatch from Bonneval, on the Loire, today, (the 12th,) reports that the Prussians lately at Villeaumbiarn are now moving toward Chateaudun, where the National Guards are ready to receive them. The rolling stock of the railway has been sent to Vendome.

THE NORTH

Opening of the Bombardment of Soissons—The Fighting at St. Quentin—Bravery Shown.

ST. QUENTIN, Oct. 12.—The Prussians have commenced to bombard Soissons. The town is able and prepared to stand a siege.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The details of the fighting before St. Quentin have been received and furnish, according to one of the journals, "a story of true French heroism." The Prussians had not returned to make a second effort to capture the town as they threatened. The French preparations to receive them were perfect.

THE ARMS IN ARTOIS.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—An American, who has just arrived here from Brest, says the patriotic uprising in Brittany is wonderful. Thousands of men, led by the Cures, crowd the railway trains on their way to Tours, to obtain arms and enlist. Throughout the country the greatest enthusiasm prevails.

ROUEN.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The following advices have been received here from Tours, dated at that place Wednesday evening:

The Rouen Council has an additional demanding that the town be placed in a state of siege, and the command intrusted to an experienced General. The writer insinuates in that connection, that Gen. BOURBAKI, returning from Tours, will pass through Rouen.

The Garden Mobile, at Rouen, have received orders to march at a moment's notice.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—A detachment of 3,000 Germans, under the command of Prince ALBERT, with artillery, have marched on Rouen, making exhaustive requisitions on the way.

THE NORTHERN FORTRESSES READY.

The French fortresses on the Belgian frontier, Maubeuge, Roeroy, Douai, Valenciennes, Lille, &c., are fully prepared for a siege. The bombardment of the first-named is imminent. The commanders of Cambray and Landrecies have given orders for the inundation of the surrounding country as a means of defense.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The German garrison of Stenay, captured by the French from Montmédy, numbered only sixty men.

THE EAST.

Harassing Prussian Communications—Germans at Epinal—Defeat of the National Guard and Garrison of the City.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—The invaders attribute the frequent railway accidents in their rear to the ill will of the inhabitants. They make this the pretence for treating the civil authorities with excessive severity, and for levying enormous requisitions. The inhabitants of Ain, and other eastern departments are resolved on resistance. The Franc-Tireurs are springing up everywhere, overrunning the country, and doing much harm to the Prussians.

GERMANS AT EPINAL.

NEUFCHATEAU, Oct. 13.—A force of Prussians, 7,000 strong, is at Epinal. Ten trains of German troops have passed the Meuse going to Paris.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The National Guard gallantly but vainly defended Epinal, and finally retreated toward Xertigny. The Franc-Tireurs, who were near at hand in force, gave them no support, and fled on the appearance of the enemy without firing a shot.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from Epinal dated yesterday afternoon, announces that the Prussians have entered that place. The citizens made a stout defense, but were not able to resist the artillery of the enemy. The town was considerably damaged by the cannonade.

THE SOUTH

Lyons in a State of Defense—Disappearance of all Symptoms of Disorder.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—Reliable information has just been received here, by mail, from Lyons, showing that that city is amply prepared to resist any force the Prussians can send against it. The heights near the city have been strongly fortified. Entrenched camps have been constructed and heavy guns placed in position. The entire population is armed, and are drilling day and night. Large numbers of Mobiles and Franc-Tireurs have reached Lyons. There are troops enough there now for an army, and they may be easily organized to act on the offensive. All symptoms of disorder have disappeared from that city, and throughout the south of France the situation is now accepted uncomplainingly.

THE ARMY OF THE SOUTH.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The French Army of the South has as a nucleus three cavalry regiments, which were sent south from Paris before the investment of the city, the Algerian infantry, and the troops formerly serving in the western departments, making a total of 4,000 effective and disciplined men.

MARSEILLES.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—The following news dispatches have been given to the public, today, by the Ministry:

MARSEILLES, Oct. 12.—A decree of M. ESQUIROS suspends the Councils-General until further order, as a measure of public safety. CAMELO, the son-in-law of Gen. GARIBALDI, has arrived here. M. ESQUIROS has received a petition demanding that the Bishop resign, and be replaced by one chosen from the clergy of Marseilles. M. ESQUIROS declined to do this. The petition was signed by 6,000 persons.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Gen. Burnside and the War—Beauregard and Napoleon—Bismarck's Approhensions from Republicanism in Germany.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Every one here is asking if it is reserved to Gen. BURNSIDE, by rushing in where diplomatists fear to tread, to end the war! It was a Yankee dentist who rescued the Ex-Empress from Republican vengeance and got her out of France. It is not impossible that another Yankee, by insinuating himself into the good graces of King WILLIAM, may get him and his Chancellor to listen to reason as expounded from the American point of view. Mr. RUSSELL, of the London Times, gives Gen. BURNSIDE a first-rate notice in a letter from Versailles today, relating to a "certain General who is acting as an intermediary of some sort between the belligerents."

BEAUREGARD'S OFFER OF SERVICE.

It has been a question as to whether BEAUREGARD really offered his services to the French. The facts which I have just heard are these: Previous to the fall of Sedan he communicated through Col. DUNCAN to the Emperor his desire to serve him in a military capacity. Only the other day Col. DUNCAN received from Wilhelmshoehe a reply, in which the Emperor, thanked the General for the offer, and regretted that it came too late for him to be able to avail himself of it, but that in the present strait of France a renewal of it would be eagerly accepted by the Provisional Government.

REPUBLICANISM IN GERMANY.

The correspondent of the NEW-YORK TIMES at Carlsruhe, writing on the 9th, says that in Prussia proper, and in the Northern States of Germany, the republican system finds but little favor at the present juncture. It is otherwise, however, in Southern Germany, and the fact is well known in Berlin, in spite of Count BISMARCK'S card to REUTER. The Police are actively engaged in watching every movement tending toward Republicanism. The arrests at Königsberg created a great sensation, and the approval, by Count BISMARCK, of the measures of Gen. VON FALKENSTEIN, is calculated to do a great deal of mischief. The people think his actions are opposed to his sentiments, as expressed in the Reuter dispatch. No doubt the Prussian Government dreads the influence of Republican institutions. If it were otherwise why gag the Press in Frankfort. Censure, until of late was entirely unknown there, but during the past fortnight the issue of a daily paper was suppressed four times. It is to be hoped that this fact may prove to have been due to the action of over-zealous officials, and that BISMARCK will take steps to prevent further mischief.

Preparing the Bill of Expenses for Prussian Invasion—War Contributions of Nations Likely to be Demanded by Prussia.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Prussian Government have ordered an appraisement of the damages done to private property in Strasbourg, evidently with the intention of putting the amount in the bill of indemnity against France.

The Daily Gazette says Austria has been ordered to furnish a minute of the war contributions levied by the French early in this century, probably for the same purpose. No mention has yet been made of the damages to be claimed for the execution of CONRAD VON HOHENSTAUFEN.

THE FRENCH CAPTURES.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The official accounts show that the French was already captured thirty-two prizes since the commencement of the war.

CITY WAR NEWS.

Appeal by Americans at Paris for Aid for the Wounded.

A meeting of the American International Sanitary Committee was held at Paris on the 10th of September, at which the following resolutions were adopted on motion of Rev. WILLIAM O. ALLISON:

Resolved, That circumstances having prevented the removal of the sick and materiel of this Committee from Paris, it now finds itself in front of the threatening lines of the besieging army, and that the largest need of all its resources is greatly to extend and perfect its present large organizations will be required for the coming winter, and that the Committee will, therefore, as soon as possible, address to the American people a statement of the condition of its work, and of the additional means necessary to carry it on, and to meet the indebtedness which must be incurred to carry on the great work of charity to a successful issue. That the Committee cannot wait till its indebtedness can be met by the voluntary contributions of the people, but must rely on the assurance that they will be ready and willing to pay the debts

SINGULAR LITIGATION.

A Charge of Arson Revived in a Civil Case—The Smouldering Embers of a Blasted Hebrew Drink Quarrel Again—The Complaint Dismissed.

A somewhat novel and interesting case, involving charges of fraud on the part of the defendant, and incidentally of larceny, was on trial before Judge VAN BRUNT, in the Court of Common Pleas, yesterday. In her complaint the plaintiff, Mrs. MARGARET LARKIN, as administratrix of OWEN LARKIN, charges against the defendant, JOHN T. WILSON, that in the month of May, 1868, he, (WILSON,) executed to her husband a pretended deed of property in Brooklyn, receiving in consideration therefor $1,800, to recover back which the now brings this action; that such pretended deed was not intended by the defendant to convey anything whatever, but that it was executed or procured to be executed and delivered to deceased by defendant, for the sole purpose of fraudulently obtaining the money sought to be recovered in this action. The answer of the defendant denies all the allegations of the complaint. It will be remembered, moreover, that in January, 1868, the same bakery of the defendant, then in Fulton-street, was destroyed by fire. Charges were then made against defendant and deceased having procured the premises to be fired. An examination was had before Justice DOWLING and the case dismissed, but the plaintiff in this case, and her daughter, again revive the charge against the defendant and others.

Among the testimony offered on behalf of the plaintiff was that of Mrs. LARKIN herself, who testified that on the day when the transfer of the money and deed was made, she had come to the market, and while absent was followed by her son, who told her that her money was gone; she hurried home, and on arriving there found her husband and the defendant in the house; a small desk in which she kept a note for $1,800, and $600 in gold, was found broken open; that at the same time her husband and the defendant exhibited to her a deed for some property in Brooklyn for which they stated the money had been paid; that her husband put the deed in his pocket and was preparing to go to Brooklyn with Mr. WILSON to record it, when the latter left the house and returned in about ten minutes, bringing with him bake-house dripping, he sent for her husband to go in also; that her husband then left his house and went to the defendant's bakery from whence he did not return until an explosion took place in the bake-house in the afternoon; that while the explosion took place, the fire spread, resulted in the bake-house and there found her husband and son who had been severely injured, being covered with flour; that after her husband had recovered sufficiently to speak the asked him what he had done with the deed, to which he replied that it was in his pocket; the pocket which had been pulled off him while on fire after the explosion; that she found the deed, together with some money, but as the same moment the defendant came up and spoke to her about getting a carriage for the removal of her husband to his house, and that she threw down on the floor, and went to her house; that her husband and son died a few days after, and she never again saw the deed.

The daughter of plaintiff testifies that while her husband was at the New-York Hospital she heard the defendant tell her father that he had found the deed on the floor; that her mother asked defendant for the money, inasmuch as he had got the deed, and she did not want the property; that defendant refused, saying that he would see that her husband and son were properly buried; that the money was now in property and she had better leave it there. Her mother and daughter testified to seeing several parties, named by them, setting fire to the building at the time when the fire occurred in the previous January. The daughter further testified that WILSON, the defendant, had attempted before the fire to bribe her mother and another woman, with a promise of $1,000 each, to burn the bakery on fire, which was indignantly refused; and that her brother attempted to throw defendant down stairs because of the proposition.

GEORGE W. HOXIE, counsel for plaintiff, testified that he served the summons and complaint on the defendant personally; that on that occasion the defendant asserted, the witness sat down, and there told him that this whole claim was a trumped-up matter; that there had been no negotiation between the deceased and defendant, and that he (defendant) never owned any property in Brooklyn.

Plaintiff here rested the case, and on this testimony counsel for the defendant moved for a non-suit, on the ground that the evidence as in only showed that if any such transaction ever took place between the defendant and deceased, the fact appears that money was paid and a deed delivered, and that if the deed subsequently came into the possession of the defendant, it was by consent of the deceased, and if lost, he (defendant) was not responsible except for conversion.

The Court granted the motion and dismissed the complaint, on the ground that the plaintiff had failed to produce testimony sustaining the allegation of fraud. GEORGE W. HOXIE appeared for plaintiff; JOHN SEDGWICK for defendant.

A QUESTION OF LAW AS TO MONEY PAID NOT THE MONEY OF THE CREDITOR.

Solomon Simon vs. The Mayor, &c., of New-York—About the 1st of May, 1867, the plaintiff, who was a distiller in First-avenue, made an arrangement with the Croton Aqueduct Board for the use of so much water as he might need for the purpose of carrying on his business. An estimate was made by the engineer of the cost of the water for the ensuing six months, and a payment of $1,250 was paid to the Croton Board. Plaintiff's business was not carried on to the extent expected, for each working day was $10 or $12. On the 20th of August following the premises were totally destroyed by fire, of which fact due notice was given at the office of the Croton Board. The fire, however, occurred without any fault on his part. The plaintiff demanded that the sum of about $600 be refunded to him, that being the amount remaining unexpended. Defendants refused to do so in unexpired form. The City refused to refund the money, and hence this suit was brought to recover it.

As a matter of law Mr. Dean, assistant to the Corporation Counsel, contended that the payment of the $1,250 was in no sense a deposit, such as can sometimes sometimes demand, but an absolute payment. He also insisted that the plaintiff had not shown that he had been compelled to pay the money from which the sum could be refunded.

The Court decided both points against the defendant, and rendered judgment for the plaintiff for the full amount claimed with interest and $10 per cent allowance.

For the plaintiff, Messrs. G. R. & T. D. Fellow; for the defendants, Mr. Dean, Assistant Counsel to the Corporation.

THE NEW-YORK SILVER MINING COMPANY OF NEVADA—A MINED CASE.

Hugh Reill and John Cook vs. The New-York Silver Mining Company of Nevada, Isaac Sprowls, President of the Company, et als.—This action was brought as a Court of equity, for the purpose of obtaining a decree for an injunction and other relief, which was asked under the following state of facts: About October 26, 1868, the Company above named issued one hundred bonds, with coupons attached, for $500 each, the consideration being that they were given and were secured by a lien on all property both real and personal, belonging to the Company. On the 1st of May, 1867, the Company issued a second series of bonds, also secured by a lien on all property, purported on their face to be first mortgage. Only a small part of the real and personal property of the Company passed into the hands of the holders of the bonds of the first series executed prior to the second series, and in consequence of the purchasers, in good faith of the second series of bonds which amount in the aggregate to $150,000, insist that they have been defrauded of a valuable lien on the property, and hence this suit was a triangular struggle. The case was argued at length by Mr. A. R. DYATT for the plaintiffs, Mr. WILLIAM ALLEN for the Company, and Mr. Millard for the bondholders, who were made defendants. The Court dismissed the complaint as against Mr. Millard's clients, and decreed that the receiver of the Company should pay the costs of the defendants, judgment was awarded for the plaintiffs.

KINGS COUNTY SUPREME COURT—CIRCUIT.

William H. Jameson vs. The Brooklyn Shutting Bolt Co.—In this case the plaintiff alleged that when this corporation, which is the defendant was formed he was appointed for life Agent of the Co., with a salary of $3,000 and that on the 5th of December, 1868, he was duly sent for them. The defendants answered, denying the allegations, and alleging that the duties of the plaintiff were performed to their entire satisfaction, and that they have a right to dismiss him at any time they deem proper. But is therefore brought to recover $5,000.

The defendant alleges that one $5,000 worth of stock invested in this Company was sold at $4 per share, and that of the plaintiff, both for and on behalf of the firm of Harvey, Johnson & Co., which firm had made a contract for the building of defendant's mill, and that at the time of the authorization of the Company direct that the forty shares should be issued to the firm of Harvey, Johnson & Co. FRIDAY, Oct. 14—P. M.

The squeeze in Gold for cash delivery was relieved at an early hour in the forenoon, by the readiness of holders to lend it at ½ ₱ cent. for the day, and subsequently by their offers to lend it flat—that is, without bonus or interest. The secret of the sudden change was not clearly explained up to the close of business, but the rumor was current that the parties to the combination to make higher rates, besides being suspicious of the probable action of the Treasury in case the attempt should be made, fell out among themselves, but whether on mutual recriminations of bad faith or not, we cannot undertake to report. The price of Gold in the open market fell from 114 ₱ cents to 113⅞ ₱ cent. after the settlements of the day were so easily made. The Foreign Exchange failed to improve on the let up in Gold, and Bills on London were quoted, on actual transactions, at 108⅛@108⅜, 60 days, and 100 ₱ cents, short sight, for standard bankers. The market is influenced by the improved export movement of Domestic Produce which creates about $4,500,000 of Exchange this week.

The slight flurry in Money on call loan noticed yesterday, passed over this morning with the break in the Gold combination, and although 7 ₱ cent. was again paid by some of the Brokers, early in the day, the prevailing rate was 6 ₱ cent. after 12 o'clock noon, and the market left off easy.

The Stock Exchange improved on the Railway list as SOON as it was known that the Gold corner was out of the question, and the Money market restored to quiet, and there was a pretty fair business done at the Boards, and in the Long Room of the Exchange, at slightly better prices than Thursday's closing. In the Miscellaneous Shares, Western Telegraph advanced to 82@82¼ ₱ cent., and Pacific Mail was steadier. In the Public Funds the business of the day was done at somewhat lower figures, 6-20s of 1867, 110⅛ ₱ cent. Nothing new occurred in the Southern State Bonds.

After the late Boards the following quotations were made as compared with Thursday night. The Market closing strong and active:

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE WAR.

M. GAMBETTA has issued a proclamation to the inhabitants of Tours, conveying the information that on the 12th inst. the people of Paris, impatient of Prussian delay in attacking them, marched forward upon the enemy, driving them back from the positions on the entire circumference of Paris, which they had been occupying since three weeks. The proclamation details the positions from which the Germans have been obliged to retire, and invites the provinces to do their duty, as Paris has done here. A London dispatch says the terrible fire of the Mont Valérien fortifications has swept the country round about. For a circuit of six kilometres the Prussian works have been destroyed, all the batteries attempted to be constructed by them having been swept away. The Chateau of Meudon has been destroyed, and the Prussians driven from Clamart, Meudon and Montretout. Villejuif and Cachan have both been retaken by the French. The telegrams confirm the facts set forth in M. GAMBETTA'S proclamation. The dispatches from Versailles state that court-martial in the Prussian lines makes short work with deserters. The French General commanding at Orleans, in the recent engagement, makes an official report of the battle, in which he says that his corps was on the way to Paris when he encountered the Germans. The fighting was obstinate, but the superior Prussian artillery broke his lines. The crossing of the Loire was effected in good order. A Tours dispatch, of yesterday, says the Prussians seem to have retired from their advanced position to the south of Orleans. The successful sorties of the Parisians cause intense excitement at Tours. Gen. BOURBAKY has received an ovation from the troops and citizens of the town. All the lines communicating from Tours with the western section of the country are still open. Reports from the Sub-Prefect of Pont-l'Evêque, to the 12th inst., confirm the announced successes of the sorties by Marshal BAZAINE. He had burned five villages which sheltered the Prussians, dislodged them from several positions, and cut to pieces four regiments of cavalry. At the same time Marshal CANROBERT made a successful sortie on the left bank of the Moselle. The Prussians report a mutiny imminent among the soldiers in Metz. The French Government is determined on prosecuting the war to the last extremity. It is prepared for siege. Each canton of France is required to furnish a battalion of troops for the defense of the country, and there are 1,200 cantons.

GENERAL EUROPEAN NEWS.

Our Madrid correspondent telegraphs that the political situation is daily becoming worse. The desire for the assassination of the personal government of Gen. PRIM increases as the time approaches for the reopening of the Cortes. He also writes that affairs in Portugal show that the King has entirely lost the moral ascendency through the influence of Spanish diplomacy....Telegram and mail news received in London are bringing reports of the effects of the recent storm on the coast and in the interior. The mill regions of Lancashire have experienced disastrous freshets, and the shipping on the Mersey has been badly damaged. Relief has already been voted by the City of Liverpool for the sufferers.....The United States steamer Swatara is at Portsmouth, England.....The annual budget in the Dutch Chamber met with opposition, that body demanding explanations of the Luxembourg affair and the Venezuela question.....The Right of England statement is less favorable this week.

GENERAL

Advices from South America, by way of Lisbon, say that a force of the Argentine Republic had defeated the insurgents in two engagements. The Montevideans and the rebels also had an indecisive struggle.

The family of the late Gen. LEE have signified their willingness that his remains shall be interred in Holly wood Cemetery, Richmond, Va., in the section belonging to the State of Virginia. This was announced to the Legislature yesterday morning, and that body adjourned to Tuesday next. Gen. LEE'S body is expected to reach Richmond on Monday. The Faculty of Washington College, Lexington, yesterday passed resolutions in which it is suggested to associate the name of LEE with that of WASHINGTON in the title of the institution, and to observe his birthday in the same manner as that of the "Father of his Country."

DAVID C. BURDICK was sentenced yesterday, at Little Valley, N. Y., to be hanged on the 25th of November, for the murder of HENRY H. BAKER, colored, in Olean about a year ago.

The wound of JOHN C. NOLEN, who was shot on Tuesday in the Chestnut-street Court-room, Philadelphia, where the judges of election were in session, having been pronounced fatal by the attending surgeons, the ante-mortem statement of NOLEN was taken, in which he says he was shot by ALEXANDER CRAWFORD at the instigation of WILLIAM B. MANN, late District-Attorney. MANN says he simply told CRAWFORD to defend himself.

The Republican Convention of the Twenty-sixth Congressional District, at Oswego, yesterday, nominated Hon. THOS. C. PLATT, on the 1,022d ballot.

The Grand Lodge of Free Masons of California has repealed the decree forbidding subordinate lodges to bury the remains of Masons who commit suicide.

The steam-ship Continental, from Manzilan, Mexico, for San Francisco, foundered at sea thirty miles off Cape St. Lucas on the 20th ult., and seven passengers and one of the crew were drowned. The steamer encountered a severe gale on the 20th, and on the 29th her fires were put out by the water from a leak. Those lost refused to leave the ship, while all who took to the boats were saved. Her treasure, amounting to $140,000, and the mails are lost.

President GRANT is to visit Georgia next week, having been invited through a joint resolution of the General Assembly. He and those who may accompany him, will leave Washington on Tuesday, in a special train, and be met at the State line by a Joint Committee of the Assembly. In Atlanta the Presidential party will be the guests of the City Council.

The New-York and Wilmington steam-ship Washington, which left Wilmington, N. C., yesterday morning, for this port, with 700 barrels of turpentine and 100 bales of cotton, took fire about nine miles below that city, and was run ashore on Big Island, where she was burned to the water's edge. A Wilmington fire company was sent down to endeavor to save part of the cargo.

A remarkably fine display of the northern lights was witnessed in different parts of New-England, last evening, and in the West, this State, City and vicinity.

Mr. SAMUEL HEASLIP, an apparently prosperous, and certainly respected, merchant of Saratoga Springs, committed suicide on Thursday at Saratoga. He first took laudanum, and then shot himself immediately after.

Yesterday the Republicans of the Ninth Massachusetts Congressional District renominated Hon. W. B. WASHBURN, of Greenfield, and the Democrats of the Tenth District nominated REUBEN NORES, of Westfield.

Mr. Richard O'Gorman's Definition of "Ring."

We have very little space to spare just now, but yesterday we gave up four columns and a half to the second defense of Gov. HOFFMAN and Mr. TWEED. We were moved to do this partly from the desire to let every side have a fair hearing, and in consideration of the fact that Mr. TWEED'S first defense, in the columns of the World, was so very injurious to the unhappy object of it. Much as we may dislike the gang of which TWEED is at the head, common humanity compels us to sympathize with them under the disastrous advocacy of their friends. In the next place, Mr. RICHARD O'GORMAN is a shrewd advocate, and therefore could be relied upon to put forward everything that could be said in favor of his clients, in the strongest possible light. After giving him a full hearing, we need not abandon any more space to the "Ring" advocates. As the Corporation Attorney, he may be said to hold a perpetual brief for TWEED, SWEENY, and HALL—and although it is quite out of the question to listen to him as to an impartial person, at least we may presume that he speaks with a full knowledge of his subject.

Now, so very bad is the case which Mr. O'GORMAN had to defend, that we are sorry to say he was afraid even to deal as an honest man with it. He only touched it, so to speak, with a pair of tongs. He was driven to all the tricks which a lawyer in difficulties is compelled to use,—to evasions of important charges, to general allegations, to dwelling upon accusations which we, at least, have never made,—such as the one about the purchase by Mr. TWEED of "various ponds for twenty-five thousand dollars," &c. Mr. RICHARD O'GORMAN knows very well that we have not published any charge relating to that subject, but, like an advocate who knows that his client is guilty, he tries to hoodwink the judge and put the jury upon a false scent.

In favor of Mr. TWEED, this professional advocate has absolutely nothing to say. He wastes his breath in talking about Mr. TWEED'S "gorgeous house," and says that it is none of our business. Who said it was? Is it not Mr. RICHARD O'GORMAN aware that it was the Ring organ, the World, which first told us all about TWEED'S "palatial stables" and "gorgeous harness," and exposed him to public reprobation for possessing them? Has he any objection to our quoting from TWEED'S own paper? He only objects to our quoting from it when there has been a good deal to say about Mr. TWEED. So there has, and we are very sorry for it. The subject cannot possibly be more disagreeable to Mr. O'GORMAN than it is to us. We have no desire to drag our readers into disreputable company at any time—but the real trouble is that TWEED is everywhere and everybody in New-York. We find him in almost every office, and at the top, bottom, or middle of every job. He will not allow us to ignore him. He is perpetually obtruding himself upon us. Only on Tuesday last he thrust himself prominently before the public in another bare-faced Erie swindle. While his actions are being sharply criticised, and at a serious stage of the Democratic canvass, he had the impudence to concert a plan with JAMES FISK, Jr., for thrusting his hands deeper than ever into the pockets of the Erie shareholders. We say that this is a man who deserves no quarter. He shamelessly insults the whole community, and simply defies the public and the Press,—saying to them: "Go on grumbling as you may, I will still make or break laws to suit my own convenience, and you will not take the trouble to put a stop to me as a nuisance. You are too apathetic. We tricksters are the only active men in this community." Even Mr. O'GORMAN, who holds his brief, means at the public by telling them that it is no business of theirs how rich TWEED is—and yet the World has told us on authority that TWEED has made all his money by "involuntary contributions" from the public!

Mr. RICHARD O'GORMAN breaks down just as miserably in his defense of HOFFMAN. He says that the only charge brought against the Governor is that he signed the Erie bill. Mr. O'GORMAN, a prominent lawyer, dares to get up at a crowded meeting and say this, in the teeth of the accusations brought against HOFFMAN by the Bar, of dishonestly tampering with the Judiciary. Silence on such a subject as this is absolutely fatal to the advocate's clients. It is like Mr. O'GORMAN'S blundering defense of the Parks Commission. He mentions the name of one member only, and says, "is not this an honest man?" He keeps carefully out of sight the fact that another of the three members of the Executive Committee is "TOM FIELDS." Now, why on earth did Mr. O'GORMAN leave FIELDS out? Was it because he thought the public might not like to hear that the Central Park is now practically in the hands of FIELDS and SWEENY?

Throughout this strange address, the counsel for the Ring left every material accusation against the Ring unanswered. It is as if he had been engaged in defending a man from a charge of burglary, and based his defense upon the fact that the prisoner in his early days attended Sunday-school regularly—and upon that ground demanded an acquittal. Gov. HOFFMAN is solemnly charged with committing a great outrage upon the public by willfully putting corrupt Judges in positions of vast importance—and Mr. RICHARD O'GORMAN, a lawyer himself, and put up to plead for HOFFMAN, dare not utter a single word in reply to this indictment. It is much better for the Ring to clap a bridle on the tongues of their advocates altogether than to allow them to come forward with these ruinous arguments.

As for the speech made by the Mayor, there is but one thing in it which will strike the public attention. He alluded in an affectionate sort of way to "our Democratic paper, the World." Was Mr. HALL thinking of the time when the World denounced him by name as "a shameless corruptionist of the Ring?" A very pretty label "our paper" contrived to paste upon his back! He appears to be as proud of it as a peacock is of his tail, but most people would rather go about the streets with a less conspicuous sign about them than that of "shameless corruptionist of the Ring."

Adventures in the Air.

Not long ago there was a great race for fictitious stories of adventure in the air. The English magazines were rich in such tales, and the illustrated publications of London and Paris were embellished with all manner of startling pictures of scenes far above the earth. Sometimes it was a maniac trying to hurl somebody else out of the car, sometimes an artless virgin carried off by her betrayer. In one case a gentleman, evidently weary of the society of his companion, had clambered, while the latter was asleep, up to the bag of the balloon, and, having made himself secure there by cords, was coolly cutting loose the car which contained his sleeping friend, so that he should be precipitated to the ground, a mile below. In another sketch a person fond of practical joking had surreptitiously suspended his friend from the car, by a rope made fast under his arms, and thus at the distance of a hundred feet or so, the dismayed victim was dangling in the air. The incident of balloons being fired at with rifles from the earth, has been repeatedly introduced in fiction, and so has that of aeronauts assailing people from balloons in the same way. We believe that some imaginative writer has even painted an aerial combat between rival balloons, the occupants of each using fire-arms, and meeting in the sequel a common destruction.

So much for romance. But the realities of ballooning adventure, or the projects which have been devised by aeronauts, have been even more strange and incredible. Among the latter must be reckoned Prof. LOWE'S famous design. He proposed to the public, if not to himself, to cross the Atlantic in a gigantic balloon, some three hundred feet high from the crown of the ball to the car. This was to carry cooking apparatus, provisions for three months, scientific implements, guns, ammunition, furs and blankets at discretion, and a dozen passengers. The immense balloon was, in truth, partly inflated on the ground in Sixth-avenue, next to the Forty-second-street Reservoir. But for some unexplained reason it never went up. Its tawny globe appeared above the surrounding fence, swelled to the height of neighboring houses, it swayed about majestically for a few days and then disappeared. Mr. LA MOUNTAIN'S design of thwarting the plans of the Jockey Club and the pleasures of its patrons. A wet race-day will be sandwiched in between two days of tantalizing brightness and beauty in a way that suggests nothing else, and it not unfrequently happens that the entire week is less enjoyable than the days appointed for the races.

In this eastward fortune we find one reason of the scanty attendance, which seems yearly to grow scantier, at the Fordham course. Yet this is not the only reason. Last Saturday was as lovely a day as the most exacting dudine or the most timorous beauty could desire; yet the balconies of the Club-house were far from crowded, and the benches of the grand stand bore such a sprinkling of spectators as only served to emphasize their forlorn emptiness and desolation. The quarter-stretch and the pool-market, to be sure, had their usual throngs of eager and clamorous betting men. But these are sure to be present, rain or shine, and constitute precisely the class which it is least desirable to attract to a race-course of the aims and pretensions of Jerome Park. The design of that Park, as we understand it, was to cultivate among the public at large at once a taste for the noblest of pastimes and also a proper appreciation of the noblest of animals. Up to the present, this praiseworthy intention has but indifferently succeeded. And the failure is not due, as we have already intimated, to any shortcoming in the management of the Park, or to any mistake in its original conception. It is charmingly situated in a lovely country, and just far enough from City limits to give room for a pleasant drive, while by rail it is easily and speedily accessible. From the beginning the races have been conducted with scrupulous fairness, exhibiting the best stock in the country; and if in one regard the public has been disappointed oftener than seems judicious, the fault is not fairly chargeable to the members of the Jockey Club. We refer, of course, to the too frequent practice of withdrawing horses advertised to run. To those who go to the Park with the anticipation of seeing a large field of famous names, it is somewhat vexatious to be put off with a match between two, perhaps, second-rate racers, or the still more exasperating formula of a walk over. Yet, owners of fine stock have an undoubted right to refuse to risk property so expensive and so precarious as racing stock in a hopeless contest or over an unfit track. And even in this respect, as was shown more than once during the present meeting, there seems to be a growing disposition among owners rather to take such risks than to disappoint. Thursday's track, we have said, was cruelly heavy, yet four good races were run over it in very fair time, two of them, the Selling Sweepstakes and the Three-Year-Old contest, being notably sharp and exciting. Today the attractions are very great, and no doubt a full attendance will be at the Park to see the sport.

Is New-York to be Placed Under Mob Law?

The World has answered this question in the affirmative. It has done its best to incite the worst kind of Democrats to commit a riot on election-day. This danger must be guarded against, and in time to prevent any misunderstanding on the part of the ruffians who hope to have this City at their disposal on the 8th of next month.

Down to the present time, adequate preparations have not been made to meet the outbreak of violence which is clearly foreshadowed by the articles in the World. United States Marshal SHARPE will do all that lies within his power—but that "all" is not enough. He can only appoint Deputy Marshals in each district, and a very inadequate force to protect them. Much more than this is needed. The Marshal must have it within his power to call United States troops to his assistance, in order that the preparations for violence made by the Democrats may be frustrated. The military authorities must see that there are troops near enough to the City to be called into requisition at a moment's notice. The very knowledge that these troops are at hand will be sufficient, without their active interference. The roughs employed by the "Ring" are principally cowards, and will not venture on getting up a riot in the teeth of an overwhelming force.

We earnestly trust that this warning may be duly heeded at Washington, backed up as it is by the urgent advice of the Herald, which is not generally very harsh toward TWEED & Co. "From present appearances," said that journal yesterday, "we have reason to fear that from the incitements and instructions of unscrupulous partisan journals against these new election laws of Congress, the City of New-York, on our November election day, will be a scene of election riots and confusion disgraceful to the City, the State, the United States, and to our democratic institutions." It is for the authorities to take effectual precautions against this danger, and to let it be known in good time that they are taken. The TWEED and SWEENY faction feel that they are in a critical position, and they will not die without a struggle. But we can beat them on the 8th, if we have a fair election—and that ought to be secured to us beyond all risk of accident.

The withdrawal of Mr. COX from the Interior Department will be regretted by those who know how much industry and integrity he has brought to the performance of arduous duties. The reasons for his action are represented as personal, and as in no manner affecting his kindly relations with the President.

Every Republican who does not desire that his party shall be again sold out to the Tammany Ring, should attend the special meeting of the General Committee that has been called for this evening. An attempt is to be made by the Republican servants of the Ring to rescind the action of the Committee at its last meeting, so as to facilitate the packing of the County Conventions with Tammany Democrats. Many members of the Committee who joined in the call for this special meeting were not aware of its real objects. They should attend, to-night, to aid in preventing the consummation of the iniquity they have unwittingly helped to make possible.

We trust that the action of the Committee to-night will exhibit the paid agents of the Ring in their proper habit, and reduce them to their proper level.

So far, the elections for the Forty-second Congress exhibit a net Democratic gain of eight—the Republicans having elected fifty-six members, and the Democrats twenty-six. In regard to the elections yet to be held, our Washington correspondent sends us the result of careful estimates. figures showing that the next House may be expected to count a Republican total of 139, against a Democratic total of 97. Should this calculation be verified, the Republicans will lose the two-thirds majority they have so long held, but without losing the control over legislation which is still essential to the country's prosperity. The Democratic boasts in reference to a possible Democratic majority are the inventions of lunatics.

Nothing more conclusively proves the dishonesty of the authors of the State Election law than the outcry they have raised against Federal legislation upon the same subject. And nothing better proves the necessity for Federal legislation than the intention of Tammany—now virtually confessed by the World—to do all that can be done to render a peaceful and honest election impossible. The State Election law looked well on paper at the time of its enactment, but, obviously, the Tammany Democrats never contemplated its faithful enforcement. It is one of their numberless frauds, and their fury in connection with it is the result of a discovery that the benefit they proposed to confer, but did not, has been secured by the intervention of Congress. If for the first time in years our citizens enjoy a fair election in November, it will be because Federal authority has interfered its arm to shield them from the frauds and violence which have been the chief sources of Tammany's strength.

The telegraph tells of successful sorties by BAZAINE, and of minor French advantages in the vicinity of Paris. These incidents, however, possess no real significance. The surrender of Metz is but a question of time; and whether Paris withstand German tactics for a longer or shorter period, the final result seems equally certain. Nor is the general aspect materially affected by the promise of large accessions to the French Armies. What France most needs is capable military leadership, and this cannot be called forth by a proclamation, nor improvised out of vague enthusiasm. The best remaining General is shut up in Metz, and there is absolutely no sign anywhere of a capacity for organizing available forces. We hear now and then of attacks by French peasants upon German scouting parties, but these are exceptional. Passive submission to outrage is the rule. A dozen Uhlans take possession of a village and levy contributions without provoking a semblance of resistance. Of guerrilla warfare, or of dashing cavalry raids, either of which might easily play havoc with the German lines of communication—there is not so much as a beginning. This is one of the most ominous facts developed in the contest.

Mr. O'GORMAN defends, with much flashy rhetoric, the administration of the public moneys of the City by the Tammany Ring. He does not profess "perfect accuracy," he is candid enough to say, but he does profess to know sufficient to justify him in denouncing as "totally false, scandalous and idle" charges affecting the integrity of the Ring. Mr. O'GORMAN may be intended upon this point, but the public are not. They witness too much stealing to put confidence even in his assurances that all is right. Why not dispel doubt by producing complete balance-sheets to date? If Mr. O'GORMAN may scan the records of the Finance Department to discover excuses in its behalf, why may not the accusers of the Department have the same privilege for a more creditable purpose? Let us have a full statement, not a few garbled items.

Our German Republican friends evidently realize the necessity of frustrating the efforts of those who are hired to do the dirty work of Tammany, while pretending to be identified with the Republican cause. The German Central Campaign Club call upon their compatriots to vote at the ensuing primaries "for no delegates whatever who are holders of office under Tammany Hall." If this resolution seem to reflect unkindly on Republicans who, though holding office, are independent of Tammany and untainted by its frauds, at least it applies with conspicuous justice to that well-known band of tricksters who have worn the colors of the Republican Party only that they might betray it on election day. For them no intelligent Republican will hereafter cast a vote. They receive Tammany's money,—let them do its livery, and so cease to be the impostors they now are.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theatrical:

JANAUSCHEK ON THE ENGLISH STAGE.

The success which followed Mlle. JANAUSCHEK'S début on the English stage, Monday evening, attended her performance of "Mary Stuart" Friday night. All sorts of theatrical circumstances have stood about this lady since the beginning of her new career. The fact that she has triumphed in their midst is an additional reason for wondering and rejoicing at her victory. A less suitable house for dramatic representation than the Academy of Music could not be found. The sharp eye and ear might, without difficulty, calculate the velocity of sound from the centre of the auditorium, so large, relatively, is the distance separating the speaker from the listener. A person afflicted with weakness of sight and doomed to muted glasses might lay bare the optic nerve to the combined lights of the place without a possibility of injuring it. An actor preferring confidential dialogues to the policy of general impartment usually adhered to, might revel in the bliss of fancying himself unheard by spectators, so happily are the proportions of a pretty numerous audience caused to dwindle by the size and arrangement of the theatre. These conditions, it will be admitted, are not inspiriting for the comedian, and are hardly less chilling to the audience. That body has been agrieved by the presentation, successively, of "Deborah" and of "Mary Stuart," two dramas unending, so far as duration is concerned, and literally done to death, in German, in Italian and in English. Mlle. JANAUSCHEK, in spite of all these obstacles, has, we say, steadily threaded the path shaded with laurels. An assemblage strong in numbers witnessed her personation of Mary Stuart, Thursday. Many were touched by the pathos of the closing scenes, and more were thrilled by the verve of her acting during the interview between the rival Queens at Fotheringay. The impressiveness of the curse of Deborah has already had ample acknowledgment here. But the passage between Elizabeth and Mary Stuart is one demanding more varied expression and far greater endurance. The vehemence of Mlle. JANAUSCHEK'S denunciation of her jailer was unrivaled, and its intensity was in no way impaired by gesticulation or, indeed, by conventionalism of any kind. She was thrice called before the curtain at the end of the act. Miss FANNY MORANT embodied Queen Elizabeth, Mr. FREDERICK ROBINSON, Mortimer; Mr. MARK SMITH, Sir Amias Paulet, and Mr. J. B. STUDLEY, Lord Burleigh, three artists contributing to the good character of the entertainment, it unable throughout to relieve its monotony. The bill was unchanged last night, and will be repeated for the matinée to-day.

MISS WILSON IN PHILADELPHIA.

Mlle. WILSON has come in Philadelphia, and has charmed her hearers in that city. Her first appearance was made on Wednesday night last, and criticisms, numerous and lengthened, appeared on the morrow. The best intentions in respect of spirit and of space appear to underlie all the articles in question, and there is no difference in their verdicts as to the impression Mlle. WILSON made on the public. One of the journals prints the fact that Mlle. WILSON'S person shone with diamonds representing the sum of $60,000. It understands, also, "that Mlle. WILSON is better pleased with her Philadelphia reception than any she has yet had in America. The audience was larger than any in New-York, and the receipts were by $2,500 greater than any single night's receipts in that City, the sales of seats having amounted to over $6,000." We tremble at the result of the efforts other lyric artists will be compelled to make to confer so substantial a demonstration of interest in art.

WASHINGTON.

Completion of the Next Congress—The Republicans Two-thirds Majority in the House Preserved—Resignation of Secretary Cox—Health of Chief Justice Chase.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The following statement of the progress and results of elections for Members of Congress, thus far, has been carefully made and is believed to be strictly correct:

Maine elects five Republicans, leaving the delegation unchanged.

Vermont—Three Republicans; delegation unchanged.

North Carolina elects two Republicans and five Democrats; a gain of two Democrats; the delegation as present in Congress standing two Republicans to two Democrats, a Democrat having been elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of DOCKERY.

Pennsylvania—Fourteen Republicans and ten Democrats; net gain of four Democrats.

Ohio—Eleven Republicans and five Democrats; delegation unchanged.

Indiana—Six Republicans, five Democrats; gain of one Democrat.

Iowa—Six Republicans; unchanged.

Nebraska—One Republican; unchanged.

Oregon—One Democrat; unchanged.

Mississippi elected her election of five Republicans to the balance of the Forty-first, and also to the Forty-second Congress.

This makes a total of eighty-two members elected to the Forty-second Congress, of which the Republicans have elected fifty-six and the Democrats twenty-six, or a net gain of eight for the latter. A full House consists of 243 members; but, by reason of vacancies in Georgia, and several deaths and resignations, the present House, as now constituted, contains but 233 members, of whom 167 are Republicans and sixty-six are Democrats. There remain to be elected 161 members, and a careful estimate gives the following as the probable result:

"In Alabama, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nevada, New-Hampshire, Rhode Island, Virginia, West Virginia, there will probably be no change in the political complexion of the delegations, which now stand fifty-five Republicans to fifteen Democrats. The Democrats will probably gain as follows: In Florida one, by the nomination of a negro and Republican division; in Louisiana, two; in Missouri, two, through Republican divisions; in New-York, two; in South Carolina, which votes next week, one; in Tennessee, by votes of illegally enfranchised rebels, five; in Texas, which votes next February, one; in Wisconsin, one. Total prospective gain, fifteen. The Republicans will gain in Kentucky one, in Maryland two, in Minnesota one, in New-Jersey one; total, five. Democratic gain, ten. Georgia, not in the present Congress, will probably elect in December four Republicans and three Democrats.

This will divide the complexion of the 160 members yet to be elected, into 102 Republicans and 58 Democrats, which, added to those already elected, will make the next House stand 158 Republicans to 85 Democrats—or just enough to destroy the present two-thirds majority of the Republicans, a thing not to be deplored. It is believed that this estimate, which is based upon the results of the elections thus far held, will not be varied five votes by the official returns.

RESIGNATION OF SECRETARY COX.

There is another change in the Cabinet. It is announced to-night that Secretary COX has tendered his resignation, and that the President has accepted the same. Of this there is no doubt. The acceptance is to take effect when the annual report of the Interior Department is finished, which will be in the course of thirty days. No name has yet been indicated as his successor. The reasons for the withdrawal are understood to be entirely personal; and the relations of the President and the Secretary have been and still are of the most agreeable character.

PERSONAL.

Advices received here concerning the health of Chief-Justice CHASE indicate that it is very doubtful if he will ever be able to resume his seat upon the Supreme Bench.

The President, Secretary BOUTWELL, and Postmaster-General CRESWELL returned from the Maryland State Fair at 10 o'clock to-night.

Gen. SHERMAN returned to Washington this morning.

DISSATISFACTION AMONG TREASURY CLERKS.

While the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill was passing through Congress, the section prepared at the Treasury Department providing for nine heads of division at $1,500 each was stricken out. An appropriation of $22,500 for "additional clerks in the Secretary's office" was, however, inserted in its place. After some discussion as to the meaning of this clause it has been decided to use the amount in giving additional compensation to the heads of divisions, now receiving only $1,800, and to such other clerks as may happen to deserve extra pay. The heads of divisions are, therefore, receiving $2,500 each. And some other clerks from $200 to $600 more than the regular pay of their grades, and of course there is the natural amount of grumbling among those who think their claims to a share have been overlooked.

Another Wall-Street Forgery, & Timely Discovery.

Another forgery was discovered in Wall-street yesterday. Some days ago J. R. LIVINGSTON, after some negotiation, bought $100,000 Kansas railroad bonds of WELLS, FARGO & Co. at 77½, and gave in exchange what purported to be a certified check of HALLGARTEN & CO., for $77,500, on the Fourth National Bank. The check was deposited in the Continental Bank, and in the course of business came to the Park Bank. The forgery was so well executed that it was not discovered until the teller came to prove his certificates, when it was returned to the Continental Bank as a forgery. Mr. TIMPSON, the Cashier of the Continental, commenced an investigation into the fraud, and yesterday discovered that LIVINGSTON borrowed $50,000 on the bonds from the Commercial Warehouse Company, and received two checks thereon on the PARK Bank and Manhattan Company. These checks were deposited with CAULDWELL & CO., who were ordered to buy $50,000 five-twenties. This order being executed, LIVINGSTON called for the bonds, and requested the balance in money. He got a broker by the name of CHADWICK to identify him, but CAULDWELL & Co. were not even seen satisfied, and demanded an identification from the Commercial Warehouse Company. At this stage Mr. TIMPSON interfered, and exposed the character of LIVINGSTON, but unfortunately no arrest was made.

Damages to Railroads by the Late Flood.

Through travel by way of the Washington, Alexandria and Lynchburg Road (the great southern mail route) will be resumed on Monday. A telegram from Mr. VANDERGRIFT, general superintendent of the Orange and Alexandria Road, reports this road again in running order. The damages to this line by the recent gale and heavy rains were over $100,000. The Baltimore and Ohio Road, extending from Gordonsville to Charlottesville, is expected to be in good condition by Monday; also, the Virginia and Tennessee Road, which extends from Lynchburg to Bristol. Other railroads in East Tennessee were not injured by the floods, and are running as usual. The Pennsylvania connection of the Pennsylvania Central Road suffered considerable loss through the effects of the flood at a point a few miles west of Pittsburg, where a part of a railroad caved in upon the main track. Passengers were for some time transferred over the mountain at considerable

The Political Situation in Madrid—Importance of Further Continuance of Prim's Personal Government—Spanish Intrigues in Portuguese Politics.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Madrid correspondent of the NEW-YORK TIMES writing on the 10th inst., says the political situation is daily becoming worse. As the time approaches for the convocation of the Cortes, different parties express an anxious desire to put an end to the personal Government of Gen. PRIM. Overtures made by letter from the Ministry for conciliation have met the same fate as its proposition to accept the attributes of the Royal Power to the Regent. A review of 30,000 troops took place in Madrid on the 6th inst., before the Regent. Grave accusations are made against Señor FIGUEROLA, Minister of Finance, in reference to illegal loans.

The news from Lisbon continues to be bad. The King is daily falling in greater distress. Portuguese Commissioners who have arrived to negotiate in Madrid, have had frequent conferences with Gen. PRIM, and the machinations of Spanish diplomacy are already producing their fruits in Portugal. The unfortunate King has entirely lost moral ascendancy.

The Recent Storm in Great Britain—Reports of Destruction on the Coast and Ireland.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The telegraphs and mails are bringing accounts of the late storm from all directions. Heavy showers prevailed in the mill region of Lancashire, raising the streams and causing disastrous freshets. The shipping in the Mersey was badly damaged. No American losses are yet reported. The land telegraph lines throughout Ireland were prostrated, delaying and disorganizing the Atlantic cable service. The City of Liverpool has already voted relief to the sufferers in that region.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 14.—The report of the Second Chamber, on the annual budget, is unfavorable to the administration. The opposition demanded explanations relative to the debt of Luxembourg and the Venezuelan question. A simplification of the diplomatic system was also urged.

Bank of England Statement—The Newmarket Races—The Papal Protest Against Roman Annexation.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Bank statement is scarcely so favorable this week. The amount of bullion on hand last night was £26,000 sterling less than at the corresponding time last week. ....Yesterday was the fourth day of the Newmarket October meeting. The Handicap Sweepstakes was won by Jurumay, beating Sornette, second, and Pyter, third. ....The rumored declaration of war against China is contradicted. .... The Papal protest against the annexation of Rome to Italy has been published. It is a long document, but contains no new facts.

MARINE DISASTERS.

Sinking of the Steamer Continental on the Pacific Coast—Eight Lives Lost—Burning of a New-York and Wilmington, N. C., Steamer—Other Disasters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—The steam-ship Colorado, from Panama, put into San Diego this morning, and reports that the steam-ship Continental, from Mazatlan, Mexico, for San Francisco, foundered at sea, thirty miles off Cape St. Lucas, on the 30th of September. Seven of the passengers and one of the crew were lost.

ADDITIONAL DETAILS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 14.—The steamer Continental left Mazatlan with a full complement of passengers, $140,000 in treasure, 100 tons of salt, and a large mail. On the 28th of September she encountered a severe gale in the Gulf and sprung a leak. The pumps were worked constantly for twelve hours, but to no avail. At 9 o'clock on the morning of the 30th the water reached the furnaces, putting out the fires. All hopes of saving the vessel were then abandoned, and six boats, filled with people, shoved off. Seven passengers and the second cook refused to leave the steamer, and went down with her. Two of the boats arrived at Cape St. Lucas on the evening of the 30th. The other boats landed near Cape St. Lucas. The following is a list of the lost: MANUEL RUBIO, Mazatlan; JOSE MORAS, San Luis Potosi; J. E. LYLE, M. MARTINEZ, and three Mexicans, names unknown. The escaped passengers and a portion of the crew are on board the steamer Colorado, and expected here on Sunday next. The others of the crew are on the can-boat Cosigo. The Continental's treasure and mails are a total loss.

BURNING OF THE WASHINGTON.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 14.—The steam-ship Washington, Capt. G. W. WALLACE, which left this port today, took fire nine miles below this city, and was run ashore on a point of Big Island. Her cargo consists of about 700 barrels of spirits turpentine, 300 bales of cotton, and a few barrels of rosin. Two hours since, the fire had burst through the upper deck, and there is no doubt the vessel will prove a total loss. One of the city fire companies, with a steamer, has been dispatched to the scene in the hope of saving part of her cargo. The cargo is fully insured. The Washington is a steamer of 400 tons burden, and was on her way to New-York. She is valued at $40,000, and is partially insured in the Sun and Atlantic Insurance Companies, and in the American Lloyds. It is not known whether her cargo is insured or not.

OTHER DISASTERS.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The bark Macleran, which arrived at Shields today, was obliged to throw overboard nearly the whole of her cargo, consisting of chemicals. A fire had broken out, and it became necessary to sacrifice the cargo to save the vessel.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 14.—A large American ship, name unknown, is reported ashore at Washwood, about twenty-two miles south of Cape Henry. Assistance has gone to her.

HOLMES' HOLE, Mass., Oct. 14.—The brig Sea Carley, PARKER, of and for Portland, from Philadelphia, with coal, arrived here today with foremast and all attached gone, having been blown down on the 7th inst. in a violent squall from the North-east.

CRIMES AND CRIMINALS.

The Philadelphia Election Shooting Case—Ante-Mortem Statement of Nolen—Sentence of a Murderer in Little Valley, N. Y.—Postponement of a Murder Trial.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—The physicians have pronounced the wound received by NOLEN, yesterday, as fatal in character. He has made the following deposition:

I, JOHN C. NOLEN, do solemnly and sincerely make this, my dying deposition: That I was shot with a pistol in the hands of ALEXANDER CRAWFORD. And I further declare that this murder was committed at the instigation of and by the agency of WILLIAM B. MANN, late District-Attorney; this act being done while I was upon the floor of the Court-room on Chestnut-street, near Fifth. JOHN C. NOLEN.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 12th day of October, A. D. 1870.

J. MCCOLGAN, Alderman.

Mr. MANN admits telling CRAWFORD to defend himself, but denies that he told him to shoot NOLEN. The pistol used by CRAWFORD was taken by him, a few minutes before the shooting, from the hands of a man named AHERN, one of the persons who attempted to enter the Court-room where the judges of election returns were holding their session.

LITTLE VALLEY, N. Y., Oct. 14.—DANIEL C. HURDICK was sentenced, today, to be hanged on the 25th of November next, for the murder of HENRY H. BAKER, colored, in Olean, in October, 1869. On being asked by the Court whether he had anything to say why the sentence of death should not be pronounced upon him, he replied that he was satisfied with the efforts of his counsel and with his trial, and with the charge of the Court to the jury, but was surprised at the verdict. He said that he killed the negro in self-defense and without malice, and only intended to wound him, in order to get loose from him, when he fired the fatal shot.... The trial of CHARLEMAGNE for the murder of his wife, in Jefferson, has been put over to the next January Term of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, on the motion of the District-Attorney, Dr. GRAY, of Ulean, having pronounced him insane.

THE LATE ROBERT E. LEE.

The Session in State at Washington College—Resolutions of the Faculty—Proposition to Name the College "Washington-Lee College"—Places of Retirement—Manner in Southern Cities.

LEXINGTON, Va., Oct. 14.—Everything about Lexington indicates a house of mourning. Today, as upon the two previous days, all the business houses were closed, and mechanics and artisans have ceased to work, and a deep gloom pervades the whole community. Memorial services were held yesterday and this morning in the College Chapel, and were largely attended. Rev. Dr. LEYBURN, Gen. LEE's old Chief of Artillery, was to have moved in conducting the services, that is was with great difficulty he could proceed. The remains of Gen. LEE were conveyed from his residence to the College Chapel, the following being the order of the procession:

Escort of honor, consisting of officers and soldiers of the late Confederate Army.
The Chaplain and other clergy.
Pall-Bearers with the body.
Gen. Gray, "the war-horse that carried the General through all his campaigns" in full war dress.
The Trustees and Faculty of Washington College.
The students of Washington College.
Visitors, officers and citizens, Masons and Odd Fellows.

The pall-bearers were Judge F. Anderson, David E. Moore, Senior Trustees of Washington College; Ex-Gov. John Letcher, Col. M. F. Maury, of the Virginia Military Institute; Col. W. Preston Johnston, Hon. Randolph Tucker, Professor of Washington College, William L. Prather, Edward P. Clarke, students of Washington College; Capt. J. C. Bonde, Capt. J. P. Moore, W. G. White and J. G. Steele, citizens of Lexington.

ACTION OF THE PEOPLE OF LEXINGTON.

The remains lie in state in the college chapel, where they will remain until interment to-morrow, at 12 o'clock M. They are visited by thousands of the grief-stricken people. The ladies of Lexington claimed it as their privilege to drape in mourning the college chapel, which Gen. LEE built. They will also drape the Episcopal Church, of which he was a devout member. Meetings have been held by the College Faculty, the students, and the several literary societies, and also by the officers and soldiers of the late Confederate Army resident at Lexington, and by the citizens of Lexington en masse. Touching resolutions have been adopted to give expression to the universal sense of sorrow.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE COLLEGE FACULTY.

The Faculty of Washington College, after an appropriate preamble, reciting the principal events in the life of Gen. LEE, and commemorating his character and services, adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in the midst of the deep calamity which has befallen us in the death of our beloved President, we, the Faculty of Washington College, extend our sympathy to the family, recognizing the fact that the name of Gen. LEE, while it belongs to the whole country, is in an especial sense, the heritage of Washington College, and that it is our privilege, as it is our pride, to preserve such memorials wherein this privilege of possession shall be acknowledged, and his name publicly held in grateful remembrance by this College for all future time.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to confer with a like Committee of the Board of Visitors, and propose measures and plans for the erection of a suitable monument to Gen. LEE, in the room in which he remains are to be interred; and further, to consider and recommend such other appropriate memorials as may be deemed appropriate in the college.

Resolved, That the said Committee be requested jointly to make arrangements for the delivery of a discourse on the life and character of Gen. LEE, in the College chapel, on the 19th day of January, 1871, being the next anniversary of his birthday, and we also express the hope that the anniversary, like that birthday of WASHINGTON, shall be hereafter always celebrated in Washington College.

Resolved, That these Committees be requested to confer and report by their respective bodies on the subject of a proposed change of the name of Washington College that the name of this institution may hereafter express in its conjunction the immortal names of WASHINGTON and LEE, whose lives were so similar in their character, and both of whom, for whom equally by singular good fortune it is entitled to be associated in its future history.

Gen. LEE remarked two years ago to Gen. PENDLETON that he did not expect to live longer than two years more. The terrible pain in which he was unusually bright and cheerful. The remote reason of Gen. LEE's death was the long continuance of depressing moral causes, commencing with the weighty responsibilities and anxieties during the last years of the war, and the overthrow of the cause he so loved, and the condition of the South since, has had upon him. But he bore all with calm exterior, and devoted himself to the duty of the hour. The proximate cause of his death was mental and physical fatigue, inducing nervous congestion of the brain, which gradually caused cerebral exhaustion and death.

THE PLACE OF INTERMENT.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 14.—A message has been received here by Mr. A. M. KEILEY, Chairman of the Committee of the House of Delegates, to the effect that the family of Gen. LEE would not favor the interment of his remains in Holly wood Cemetery, Richmond, Va., on the section belonging to the State. The Committee of the House therefore left the city, this morning, for Lexington. These facts were announced in the Legislature, this morning, and that body adjourned over until Tuesday next. It is now believed that the body of Gen. LEE will reach here on Monday.

Honors Elsewhere—Large Meeting in Washington.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—A large meeting of the residents of Washington, with a liberal intermixture of men who served in the rebel army, was held at Metzerott Hall, to-night, to do honor to the memory of Gen. LEE. W. W. CORCORAN presided, with about twenty prominent citizens as Vice-Presidents and Secretaries. Dr. A. T. P. Garnett, James M. Carlisle, Judge Phillips, Ex-Mayor Berrett, Gens. Jones and Henningsen, and Col. Pickett, were among the members of the Committee on Resolutions, which treated briefly of Gen. LEE's virtues as a man. Eulogistic speeches were made by JAMES M. CARLISLE, R. T. MERRICK and others.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 14.—The death of Gen. LEE caused profound sorrow here. The bells were tolled, yesterday, and flags were half-masted on the shipping and throughout the city. The Chamber of Commerce met this morning and took appropriate action. A public meeting of the citizens will be held to-morrow noon. Business will probably be suspended during the day.

NEW-ORLEANS, Oct. 14.—Business is suspended, and the houses throughout the city draped in mourning in honor of Gen. LEE.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 14.—The Mayor of Savannah has issued a proclamation coming to-morrow to be observed with fitting demonstrations in honor of the memory of Gen. R. E. LEE. All business will be suspended; all the bells of the city will be tolled at intervals of fifteen minutes, and a meeting of the citizens will be held at 12 o'clock noon. The City Exchange and public offices will be draped in mourning, and services will be held in the various churches of the city.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 14.—A public meeting of citizens was held this evening, and resolutions were passed in honor to the illustrious dead. All the business houses and city offices will be closed to-morrow. Bells will be tolled and services held in all the churches.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14.—The City Council, to-night, passed resolutions requesting the Mayor to issue a proclamation asking that all the flags in the city be displayed at half-mast to-morrow, ordering their Chambers to be draped in mourning, and an adjournment until Monday, out of respect to the memory of Gen. R. E. LEE.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 14.—A large demonstration of sorrow at the death of Gen. ROBERT E. LEE was held here to-night. About 300 ex-Confederates were present, and resolutions of condolence were passed. Speeches were delivered by members of prominent ex-Confederates among whom were Gen. JOHN C. BROWN, Democratic candidate for Governor, and Col. J. BUCHANCOOK. The speeches manifested the sincerest admiration of the life and character of the lamented hero—not only in war, but in peace—and attributed to his wise counsel, since the surrender, the present peaceful condition of the country.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 14.—Extensive preparations are going on for the obsequies of Gen. R. E. LEE to-morrow. The Legislature of Georgia, the Judiciary and everybody, without distinction of party, will take part.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 14.—Nearly all the business houses in this city were draped in mourning today, out of respect to the memory of Gen. LEE. The bells were tolled, and business was in a great measure suspended.

The Arlington Estate—Whose Property Is It?

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The death of Gen. LEE has brought into discussion the subject of the Government possession of the Arlington estate, opposite this city, formerly his property and residence, and which it has been supposed, was held by the United States under the provisions of the Confiscation law. In this connection the Evening Star of this city today publishes the following:

It is supposed by many that the Government holds possession of Arlington by reason of the Confiscation act, and according to the provisions of that law the title can only be vested in the Government during the life of the party who engaged in the rebellion. Hence it is said that Arlington now reverts to the heirs of Gen. LEE. Such is not the case, however, as the property is not held under the Confiscation act, not having belonged to Gen. LEE. At the death of Mr. CURTIS, a life interest in it was bequeathed to Mrs. LEE, his daughter, and at her death it was to be his grandson's, CURTIS and PITT HIGH LEE. The taxes upon the property having accumulated during the rebellion, it was sold therefor and purchased by the Government. Thus it will be seen it is held by virtue of a tax title. Subsequently, efforts were made to redeem it by paying the amount of taxes; but so far they have been unsuccessful, and the title is still vested in the Government, by virtue of the tax sale alluded to. As the Arlington estate has now been converted into a great national cemetery, and is filled with the bones of those who fell in the war of the rebellion, it cannot well be used for any other purpose, and its restoration could hardly be desirable to the LEE family.

The Aurora Last Night—Its Remarkable Brilliancy.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 14.—The most brilliant display of northern lights ever observed in this section took place this evening at 7 o'clock. They were of a deep crimson color, and continued about an hour.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 14.—There was a magnificent display of the aurora borealis here to-night. The whole firmament was one blaze of crimson light, lasting for several minutes.

NEW-HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 14.—There was a splendid aurora display this evening. The red light in the heavens was marvelous, for a conflagration, and some one sounded the fire alarm and the Department turned out.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 14.—A remarkably fine auroral display was witnessed by thousands here to-night.

Personal.

One of the most assiduous and accomplished American artists now in Rome is Miss FOLEY. Our countrymen sojourning in the regenerated and now national city, the ensuing Winter, will find no one more deserving of substantial encouragement. There lies her atelier, as we write, a most delightful one, with a fountain. There lovely Cupids are playfully grouped around a very picturesque and foliated centre-piece rising from a marble basin. We should like to see such a fountain in the Central Park. Miss FOLEY excels in bas-reliefs, both portrait and ideal, and there is no more conspicuous evidence of the appreciation of plastic art, to bring home as a memorial of Rome. We would mention among her most charming efforts of this kind, "Graziella, a Capri Girl;" "Pascuccia, a Famous Roman Model;" "Undine;" "A Trastevrina;" "Joshua;" and "Jeremiah." Among the portrait reliefs are excellent heads of C. C. HALE, and a daughter of LOUISA M. ALCOTT. One would scarcely be convinced by this kind of sculpture is that it photographs admirably, and those inclined to order copies in marble can select from these fac-similes, some of which are in the possession of Miss FOLEY's friends, in this City.

HERRING'S SAFE STOPS THE BURGLARS!!
LETTER FROM THE CASHIER.

NATIONAL BANK, FISHKILL, N. Y., Sept. 28, 1870.

Messrs. Herring, Farrel & Sherman, New-York:

GENTS: Our bank was entered by burglars on the night of Sept. 26, and a desperate attempt made to force the locks; doors we thought from your safe's appearance. They wedged the doors, to our mind, with diamond powder, and blew it open. Your safe was the next object of their operations, and was badly abused. They tried it with wedges, sledges, powder, &c., but it still remained intact, and held our valuables all secure, though it bears evidence of a hard fight.

We wish you would send us another of same size, with your new patent tongue and groove door, with rubber-packed flange and all late improvements.

Respectfully yours,
H. N. FRINK, Cashier.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

The Real Estate market was without an event yesterday, (Oct. 15,) as no sales were made at the Exchange or elsewhere. The adjourned sale of Johnson & Miller, of property at Newtown, Dorp, Staten Island, on Thursday, was quite successful, all the property offered being disposed of at fair prices. A complete report of the transactions will be found below. To-day the Dobb's Ferry sale, under the direction of JOHNSON & MILLER, will take place; and as the property is particularly desirable, the result should be a satisfactory one. A. J. BLEECKER, SON & CO. will also offer to-day, at Pelham, Westchester County, some desirable property. The former sale begins at 12½, and the latter at 1 P. M. We shall endeavor to report both of these auctions in full in this column on Monday.

MONTCLAIR RAILWAY
(OF NEW-JERSEY.)
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS
INDORSED BY THE
N. Y. AND OSWEGO MIDLAND RAILROAD CO.

The only railroad now building from New-York Harbor toward the West is the GREAT MIDLAND ROAD.

The First Mortgage Bonds of THE MONTCLAIR RAILWAY COMPANY, (the New-Jersey section of the Midland,) are now offered to the amount only of HALF A MILLION OF DOLLARS.
They are payable, principal and interest,
IN GOLD.

The rate of interest is 7 per cent., payable semi-annually, FREE FROM GOVERNMENT TAX.

These bonds are secured by a first mortgage to MARCUS L. WARD and ABRAM S. HEWITT, Trustees, on the most important section of the Midland, THE MONTCLAIR RAILWAY, constituting the junction between the Midland and the First and Second Wards of the City of Paterson, N. J. Plans called for, maps, &c., before the sale. For maps and particulars apply to

JOHNSON & MILLER, Auctioneers,
No. 32 Nassau-st., N. Y.

FINANCIAL.

The Montclair Railway

having been leased perpetually to the New-York and Oswego Midland Railroad Company, the undersigned, as Trustees of this great work, sell the BONDS ARE GUARANTEED by the Company.

NEARLY 200 MILES

in extent of this most important railroad are now completed and in successful operation, and THE MONTCLAIR RAILWAY, constituting the eastern terminal section only, is fully ready for the delivery of iron and commencement of business by December, 1871, contemporaneously with the entire line. Thereby establishing a new route from New-York whereby by way of Oswego, Syracuse and Albany will be secured a distance shorter than either the Central or the Erie Roads.

We recommend these Bonds as a safe and valuable investment, because

First—They are secured by a first mortgage on THE MONTCLAIR RAILWAY and all its franchises, and EACH BOND BEARS THE INDORSEMENT of the

NEW-YORK AND OSWEGO MIDLAND RAILROAD COMPANY.

Second—The LOCAL TRAFFIC of this road must be large, as it connects New-York City with the most attractive suburbs, thereby inducing a profitable travel to the road.

Third—The Franchises of the Company, constituting lines of railway and branches to be built, and an INDEPENDENT FERRY across Hudson River, all of which are included in the mortgage, combine to render the bonds in addition to that afforded by the main line.

Fourth—The entire capital of both Companies, amounting at the present time to nearly $2,000,000 PAID IN CASH, has been invested in the road, and the economical construction of the road, is liable for the payment of these bonds.

Fifth—The large rate of interest,

PAYABLE IN GOLD COIN,

affords to holders of Government Bonds a great inducement to change their investment. For instance: A Government Bond of $1,000 costs (say)..... $1,100
Gold value as issue of 90
$1,100, invested in 7 per cent. bonds, produces an annual gold income of 77
Difference, $10, or 25½ per cent. .....
Or, in other words, an investment of $1,000 in gold and 6 per cent. bonds, respectively. For sale by

CHARLES L. FROST, }

The bonds are issued at $16,000 per mile against the road only of the line finally completed and equipped.

The greater part of the road is already in operation, and the earnings are more than sufficient to pay the operating expenses and interest on the bonds. The balance of the work necessary to establish through connections, thereby shortening the distance between St. Paul and Chicago 42 miles, and 96 miles to St. Louis, is rapidly progressing, in time for the movement of the coming grain crops, which, it is estimated, will double the present income of the road.

The established character of this road, running as it does through the heart of the most thickly-settled and richest portion of the great State of Iowa, together with its present advanced condition and large earnings, warrant us in confidently recommending these Bonds to investors as, in every respect, an undoubted security. A small quantity of the issue only remains unsold, and when the contemplated connections are made, the bonds will be worth much more, which will be the full interest to be realized by purchasers at the present price. We advise all who desire to secure this safe investment to do so at once, as they will be disposed of rapidly.

The bonds have fifty years to run, are convertible at the option of the holder into the stock of the Company at par, and the principal is payable at the pleasure of the Company after ten years. The responsibility of the gentlemen who have become interested in these bonds is unquestionable, and we feel confident that all who purchase them at an early day to command a material price considerably above par. United States Five-twenties are selling at 112 and upwards, and Central Pacific Bonds, which these bonds pay 1 per cent. more than, are rated at 90. Under the circumstances, we do not believe that these bonds will be long offered at the present price, and we advise all who desire to secure them to do so at once and fully realize on a security almost equal to Government. Until the road is completed upon the New-York Central Railroad, a portion of which requires the road to be completed, we do not anticipate any to buy at any time any of these bonds sold by us after this date at the same price as now offered by us.

TAMMANY'S TACTICS.

How the Republican Party of This City is Deceived—Account of the Operations of the Tammany Republicans—What the Latter are Ordered to do—Instructions from Tweed and Sweeny—The Proposed Meeting To-night.

The articles in the Times exposing the secret efforts of certain local politicians, known as "Tammany Republicans, toward securing the success of the "Ring" at the November election, created the wildest consternation among the leaders of the Tammany Democracy, and added to the previous dismay of the latter in consequence of the defeat of their "tools" at the last meeting of the Republican General Committee. The "wolves in sheep's clothing," as the pseudo Republicans are termed, were highly discomfited with the disclosure of their strategic machinations for continuing the supremacy of the dishonest rulers of this City, and were upbraided by the honest members of their own party for their traitorous actions, and by their Democratic masters for their illsuccess. It has been ascertained that the programme of the Tammany despotism was to have their friends and office-holders in the Republican ranks obtain a majority of the delegates to be chosen for the Republican County Convention on Tuesday next, in order to control that body. They hoped that by so doing they could be able to prevent the Convention from indorsing the nomination of an anti-Tammany candidate for Mayor, besides compelling the Convention to strengthen the Tammany cause by running a separate candidate. Their policy, in brief, was to get as many rival party candidates in the canvass as possible, in order to weaken the prospects of Tammany's opponents, and thereby improve the chances of their own nominee. The possibility of having to contend against a single man in the Mayoralty struggle, on whom all opposition voters of whatever party would solidly unite, was something which caused the corruptionists the most unpleasant feelings, agitating them with visions of approaching disaster and election from office. Tammany's tactics were first openly developed on Thursday evening, the 6th inst., at a meeting of the Republican General Committee, at which a straightforward Republican moved, as an amendment, "that the secretaries of the respective associations at least the various certificates of election, and act with the inspectors appointed by the Presidents as Inspectors of Election." In offering the resolution the intention was to give the officers of some of the doubtful Assembly District Associations authority to reject all delegates of recognized Tammany tendencies. Its introduction, however, was received with boisterous opposition on the part of a crowd of Tammany sympathizers, who "packed" the meeting. The resolution was finally adopted, although a daring attempt was made to make it appear otherwise in counting the vote. Subsequently the following resolution was proposed:

Resolved, That in any nominating Convention which shall meet under the authority of the Central Committee, no person shall be eligible as a delegate who directly or indirectly holds appointments under the Democratic City Government.

Several political schemers undertook to alter the purport of the resolution, but it was ultimately approved, after a company of "outsiders" had been expelled from the assembly. At the commencement of the proceedings, the Republican backsliders were confident of their ability to mould the Committee to suit their own plans, but when their overthrow became apparent, they determined, by the advice of two Tammany leaders, to call another meeting. On the Monday night following the meeting, the Tammany Republicans furnished another exhibition of their tactics at the First Assembly District Republican Association gathering. Our exposé of the political trickery which was practised on that occasion has been fully confirmed by Mr. JOSEPH J. SCULLY, Vice-President of the Association. That gentleman says that the Association and "the misfortune to be presided over by the notoriously corrupt Living politician, Police Commissioner HANK SMITH," and that "the present respectable men there on presenting themselves, found the room packed with ununiformed policemen and Ring politicians, notably the members of the First Ward Tammany Hall General Committee, assembled together for the purpose of manipulating the meeting in the interest of the Ring." He also says that the legitimate members of the Association held another meeting, at which they denounced Mr. SMITH for his political knavery, and deposed him from office, besides resolving to sever all political connection with him in the future.

On Wednesday last, FRANK RAYMOND, a reputed Republican, enjoying a position under the Democratic Board of Public Works, was ordered to take the Tammany workmen of his district to the polls at the Republican primary election to be held on Monday night next in the Twenty-first District, and to have them vote for the ticket headed by Inspector CHARLES H. COOPER. The latter holds a clerkship under Police Commissioner MAYNEARD. The election of himself and his associates on the ticket was desired in order to have them assist in the execution of Tammany's programme at the Republican County Convention. A meeting of the Eleventh District Democratic Association was held three nights ago, during which some Tammany Republicans audibly slipped through a resolution, instructing the delegates to the Convention not to vote for any persons except recognized members of the Republican Party. This action was solely prompted by a desire to prevent the election of an outside anti-Tammany man for Mayor. At present there are several associations where the Tammany Republicans are dominant, including the First, Fourth, Sixth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Sixteenth, and Twenty-first District organizations. Schisms also exist in the Fifth and Tenth Districts, the factions—one faction in each being out-and-out Republicans. The remainder are Tammany Republicans. Several members of the doubtful associations are known to be office-holders under the Ring. Their names are withheld for the present, in the hope that they will renew their allegiance to their party. Their defeat is regarded to be certain in case they oppose the action of the genuine Republicans. Since the Tammany leaders discovered that they were in danger of losing control of the Republican nominations, they have resorted to bribes and threats for the purpose of effecting their infamous designs. Yesterday they endeavored to suborn a member of the Republican General Committee by offering him four political offices in case he would vote this evening to rescind the action of the Committee at the last meeting. His name is known, but is not made public at present on account of the belief that he will refuse to comply with the base proposition. At the close of business hours, yesterday, TWEED declined, it is said, to attend to anything excepting matters relating to the meeting of the Republican Committee, to be held this evening. Every vote, however, will be closely watched this evening, and the position of every man will be ascertained. Those who fight the Administration Republicans in the interest of Tammany will be regarded as traitors to their party, and will be ostracised in the future. They will be considered unworthy whose influence has been purchased by the money which TWEED and his fellow-conspirators have liberally distributed among Tammany Republicans. On Thursday night "HANK" SMITH beguiled several Republicans into attending a private assemblage at the Cooper Institute, at which he persuaded them to make a call for a meeting to take place this evening. There were some gentlemen present who were unaware of SMITH's real design in demanding another meeting of the Committee. It is to be hoped that these misguided persons will completely renounce the leadership of SMITH and his hired satellites this evening, and that they will unite with true Republicans.

On Thursday afternoon two prominent Tammany Republicans, one an ex-Surveyor and the other an ex-Marshal, were seen in private conversation with PETER B. SWEENY, at the latter's office, in regard to the arrangement of the Republican "slate." The latter is about to make a great effort to break it.

THE ANTI-RING TICKETS COMPLETED.

J. Nelson Tappan for Controller, Josiah W. Brown for Sheriff, and Ernest Courtenay for County Clerk—Meeting, Hymn, Music and Harmony Represented but Convention—Harmony and Enthusiasm—Speech by Mr. Chittenden.

The County Convention of the Anti-Ring Democracy reassembled in Apollo Hall, last evening, to complete their nominations for City and County officers for the coming election. The hall was filled with delegates and friends of the movement, and all seemed animated with the most brilliant hopes of success. W. C. BARRETT, Esq., the President of the Convention, called the assembly to order at 8 o'clock, and expressed his gratification at the harmony and good feeling that characterized the proceedings of the Convention at their meeting last Monday night, and hoped that the same kind spirit and fraternal feeling would be exhibited now when they had met to complete the ticket. They would all recollect that at the last meeting a committee of one from each Ward was appointed to present candidates for the balance of the ticket, and he would now call upon the Chairman to present the report of the Committee.

Hon. JOHN FOX, the Chairman, then read the names of the following gentlemen who had been agreed upon as candidates:

For Controller—J. NELSON TAPPAN, of the Twenty-first Ward.

For Sheriff—JOSIAH W. BROWN, of the Fifteenth Ward.

For County Clerk—ERNEST COURTENAY, of the Eighteenth Ward.

For Coroners—IGNATIUS FLYNN, of the First Ward; Dr. KNOX, of the Ninth Ward; and Dr. AUGUST HERMAN, of the Eleventh Ward.

A motion was made and seconded that the report of the Committee be accepted, and the nominations indorsed by the Convention. This was put to vote and responded to by one unanimous "aye," which was followed by three rousing cheers for the ticket.

On motion of HOSWELL D. HEDGE, Esq., the Committee of one from each Ward was ordered to continue in power as an Executive Committee, to carry out the objects, and transact the business of the organization during the campaign.

On motion a committee of five, consisting of H. L. Clinton, Jno. Fox, Gen. Barnum, Peter Oakley and Jas. McLean, was appointed to inform the candidates of their nomination by this Convention.

SPEECH OF MR. CHITTENDEN.

In answer to repeated calls, HENRY L. CHITTENDEN, Esq., took the platform and addressed the Convention. He congratulated them on the perfect harmony that had attended all their proceedings, and said they had embarked on a noble movement—a movement for the destruction of the most dangerous and the most corrupt combination, called a "Ring," that had ever existed in any City. [Applause.] The movement would not cease till that combination was utterly destroyed, root and branch, and honest and faithful men were placed in office in this City Hall. They had put at the head of their ticket a man whose election was as certain, in his opinion, as the sun should roll on till the 8th of November. [Great applause.] A man who in an honest election was never yet defeated; a man who had succeeded against the "Ring" and against all other corrupt combinations; a man who could beat everything except in retreat; a man who could not be bought, coaxed or driven from the field by all the mercenary persuasions or threats of the "Ring." [Great applause.] He would relax no effort to insure the success of the ticket, and he would bring to his support a mass of voters that would astonish all who were not aware of the resolve that exists in this City. Mr. CLINTON then spoke of the Rochester Convention and the 1,200 thieves and ruffians that TWEED took with him to the Rochester Convention to pull the wool over the eyes of that body so that they should not recognise the merits of the Reform Democracy. Mayor HALL, he said, spent a deal of time and a vast amount of valuable time in torturing the English language into stretched puns, but the last one he had yet put off upon the two great powers in Tammany Hall was the present were A. OAKEY HALL and Alcohol. [Laughter and applause.] The speaker then reviewed the career of OAKEY HALL from the time he degenerated down to the present—nothing lodge and employed his time in drafting Republican communications for the Government of this City, until he landed in the ranks of the Democracy and was taken into the bosom of the "Ring." The Tammany Ring had the impudence to accuse the Reform Democracy of turning their backs upon the Democratic Party, and yet they have done nothing since they had been in power but form coalitions with the opposite party. They owed their existence to-day to a coalition formed with the unprincipled Republicans in the last Legislature. [Applause.] The City Departments were full of Republican office-holders and they had selected the worst Republicans at that, men who were in bad odor with their own party; men like SMITH and SMITH and ERK. MANIERRE, who would not be their tools and future the Republican Party, rose after years into the nomination of an independent ticket in order to insure the success of the Ring. [Applause.] When they did appoint any Democrats to office they generally brought them from the rural districts. A year ago he had occasion to go to urge the claims of a young Democrat of his acquaintance for a certain position, and he found the appointment had already been given to a man all the way from Arkansas. It turned out that he was a man who had done service during the war, but his services were on the rebel side. [A voice, "Name the Fellow."] You have hit it, said the speaker; I have nothing to say against the gentleman; he did right in getting the office, if he could, but he believed that equally able and efficient young men could be found in New-York, without going all the way to Arkansas for them. [Applause.] After dwelling at some length upon the corrupt and anti-Democratic management of affairs by the "Ring" that now rules the City, the speaker closed with the watchword, "Let WITH put victory; one and inseparable."

On motion the Convention then adjourned sine die.

THE CANDIDATES.

Mr. G. NELSON TAPPAN, the candidate for Controller, is a well-known citizen, carrying on the business of a banker and broker in Wall-street, and is universally esteemed for his high character and integrity.

Mr. JOSIAH W. BROWN, the candidate for Sheriff, is a merchant, and was formerly in the Tax Commissioner's office under the old Board of Tax Commissioners. He is a man of prompt business habits, sterling honesty, and would make an excellent Sheriff.

Mr. ERNEST COURTENAY, the candidate for County Clerk, is a highly-respected German citizen of the Eighteenth Ward, exceedingly popular with his countrymen, and in every way qualified for the office to which he has been nominated.

The candidates for Coroners are all men eminently fit for the position. Coroner FLYNN has already served one term as Coroner, and Drs. KNOX and HERMAN are physicians of good repute in their respective Wards.

The English Assembly District Reconvenes—Short Reply to Mayor Hall.

A mass-meeting of the Woodford and Kaufman Club of the Eighth Assembly District was held last evening, at No. 774 Grand-street, Mr. JAMES A. LUCAS in the chair. Resolutions were adopted in support of the entire Republican ticket. The following was also adopted:

Resolved, That we heartily join with our German brethren in rejoicing at the glorious victories of their fatherland, and earnestly hope that the efforts already made to establish a Republic in Sunny France may result in a permanent success.

Marshal SHARPE, in an address on the banner of the sunrise, took occasion to reply to Mayor HALL's denial of the correctness of the census returns, and showed from the city's own admissions that the charges of Tammany frauds and repeatings were true. He strongly condemned the political character of Mayor HALL, and added that the Government which suppressed rebellion in the South, even when supported by brave men, could not shrink from preserving the purity of the ballot-box when contaminated by thieves, bullies and swindlers. Addresses were delivered by Hon. W. A. DARLING and others, and the meeting terminated.

Democratic Repudiation of Col. Rafferty in the Fourth Congressional District—Letter from Judge Allison.

W. H. HUNT, Esq., of Schooley's Mountain, whose family have for many years been intimate with Judge HAINES, one of the most influential Democrats in the Fourth District of New-Jersey, recently wrote to the Judge, asking his advice in regard to his duty concerning the present Democratic candidate for Congress in that district. Judge HAINES answers some of the following points: "I regard the nomination of Col. RAFFERTY as irregular and a fraud upon the party, and such as absolves every member from the obligation of supporting it. The nomination was procured through a lavish and corrupt use of money." "It is conceded by his friends, and, I am informed, boasted of by Mr. RAFFERTY, that men were present attending the primary meeting and voted for delegates to the Convention—men known to be favorable to him, and that large sums of money were paid to delegates for his influence." "We are entitled to be represented by one of good repute for honesty and morality. The reputation of Mr. RAFFERTY for morality is unfortunately, almost bad." "If nominated under such circumstances must bind a party, then the days of our free institutions are numbered." "To abstain from voting is, to do but half the duty; and we must, therefore, cast our votes for Mr. HILL, who, although differing from us on political party questions, is believed to be a worthy and honest man." "I would, however, when a party question is settled, ally reliable."

As an honest man and a Christian gentleman, Judge HAINES is universally respected and admired, and the honest expression of his opinion and of his reasons for declining to vote for the Democratic nominee will have a very damaging effect on his prospects.

Fatal and Horrible.

The Thirteenth Assembly District Soldiers' and Sailors' Campaign Club, last evening adopted a resolution urging the nomination of Col. A. J. H. DUGRO for member of Congress. Capts. HYNES, SCHNEIDER and GILLS were appointed a committee to present his name to the Congressional Convention.

At a meeting of the Fourth Assembly District Soldiers' and Sailors' Association, held at No. 48 East Broadway, last evening, Dr. HANS FOWELL was unanimously recommended for the nomination of School Trustee.

A mass-meeting was held last evening at Brevoort Hall, corner of Fifty-fourth-street and Third-avenue, and another banner bearing the name of CHARLES E. LORD was raised there. Speeches were made by Judge CURTIS, WM. G. GOVER, and others.

The Fifteenth Ward William M. Tweed Association held a meeting last night at the Liberty House, No. 40 West Houston-street. Mr. JOHN A. CAROLIN was in the chair. Wm. ALLEN, delegate to the General Committee, sent in his resignation, which was accepted, and the President, Mr. O'BRIEN, elected in his stead.

A meeting of the Ninth District Woodford and Kaufman Club was held last evening in Bleecker-street, near Morton. Mr. GEO. LELAND presiding. Addresses were delivered by E. DELAFIELD SMITH and Major BULLARD. The latter said there was to be feared from the miscounting of the ballots by the Democrats, and from stuffing the boxes, and warned the party to have no alliance with Republicans who held position under Tammany. He said that MANIERRE and SMITH had been paid their price with office for assenting to the appointment of dishonest men, and that we could not come to any sel affiliation with the Young Democracy (Irish) association with Tammany Republicans, who were ready to betray their party whenever occasion required. Songs were sung by a glee club, and the meeting was very enthusiastic.

Today the Hudson and Oneida Boat Clubs, of Jersey City, will row a match-race of three miles, out of Hackensack Valley. Both Clubs possess good organizations, and they have already obtained in one six-oared race which resulted in favor of the Oneidas. The steam-boat Peyton Seymour, chartered for the invited guests, Judges and reporters, will leave the foot of Morris-street, Jersey City, at 2 P. M.

Two Russians were arrested in New-York, a few weeks since, on a charge of counterfeiting, and papers found in their possession implicated one ANTON TOCKERT, a resident of Jersey City. A warrant was issued for TOCKERT's arrest, but he suddenly disappeared. On Thursday evening he was seen in Jersey City. Officer BODEN, and followed to West End. There he met Police Captain JARVIS, to whom BODEN had telegraphed, and who had the warrant. TOCKERT was then sent to New-York, where he will answer before a United States Commissioner.

THE DOOMED CITY.—Germans and their sympathizers say that Paris must fall. Rivals of less magnitude have said the same about PYLE'S O. K. SOAP, and yet it rises every day in the estimation of consumers. We have practical evidence of this in the increased demand. Housekeepers discover that pure hard soap is better than the soft, gummy stuff that floods the market, put up in all manner of packages to deceive the people and favor the retailer. Respectable grocers supply PYLE'S O. K. whenever called for. Depot, No. 350 Washington-st.

Strasbourg has fallen, and Pyle's Gilt Cross fluctuates in the price per gate. The great American Crown Prince, however, steadily holds his position in the face of all comers, and like Wellington's Guards, never fails at the proper moment to "up and hat 'em." But unlike those of the Iron Duke, the champion's knocks are moderate. The rush to No. 213 Broadway, corner of Fulton-street, for the new Fall styles of head-gear is unexampled.

Look out for infringements upon my Burglar Alarm Telegraph Patent, under the guise of an improvement. Using as well as selling an infringement is violation of law, and will be treated as such. Don't be deceived about improvements. That has been my study for ten years.
